

Happy New Year 2014

Ewings Chapter

Winter Newsletter

Sons of the American Revolution

January 2014

Chester Court House and Academy Building – Chester, Ohio

Dear Compatriots,

Ewings Chapter SAR will start 2014 with our first meeting of the year to convene at the historical Chester Courthouse/Academy complex. Please set Thursday, January 23, 2014 at 6:30 pm on your iphone and/or place on your calendars. We have an excellent program all will enjoy. The speaker for the evening will be Diane Mechem Kinser. She is an author from Grove City, Ohio and has written several historical novels about events in Southeastern Ohio. Please don't miss this opportunity to hear about some of her stories. They may even include tales about your community or relatives. There will be a time to visit with Mrs. Kinder after her presentation and I'm sure she will have some of her book available for purchase. You can read more about Mrs. Kinser and her books by checking out her website www.authordmkinser.com.

The meal for the evening will feature soup and sandwiches, vegetables, desserts with tea and coffee. Please remit your response to William Beegle no later than Tuesday, January 21, 2014. You can reach me by phone at 740-446-2152 or by email at beegle@hughes.net

Chapter Rewind:

Ewings Chapter last meeting of 2013 was held November 21, 2013 at the Ponderosa Restaurant in Athens, Ohio. This was a working meeting where officers and members discussing everything from business and finance to programs and meeting options. On tap are possible meetings with our sister DAR members, programs by Ewings members and venues of historical significance. Please come next Thursday evening to learn more about Ewings Chapter events and happenings.

Upcoming events include; Winter Board of Management February 7 & 8, 2014 at the Newark Metropolitan Hotel (see SAR Bulletin for details) and our next Ewings Chapter SAR meeting set for Thursday, February 27, 2014. Please check out the new Ohio SAR web site with links to Ewings Chapter. Look forward to hearing from you soon. -- WKB