Ewings Chapter

May 2014

Ewings Chapter's Lydia Richardson wins State Oration Contest. Salt Fork State Park and Convention Center - Cambridge, Ohio.

Ohio Society SAR annual state convention was held at Salt Fork State Park near Cambridge, Ohio the weekend of May 3-5, 2014. Your President, William Beegle and Treasurer, James Smith attended the Saturday afternoon Oration contest and evening banquet. They are pleased to inform the chapter that our Ewings contestant, Lydia Richardson won the oration contest. She will now represent the Ohio State Society at the National convention in Greenville, SC in July. Lydia was honored at the Saturday evening State banquet. Awards also given and received by President Beegle was the Chapter Past President certificate to Tom Romine and the National Society Lamplighter Award and certificate to Compatriot Frank Trautman for outstanding support of the SAR Center of Advancing American's Heritage. The State Society should definitely know that Ewings Chapter is alive and well.

start at 6:30 pm. The cost for the meal is $13.00. The meal will be catered by the Chester Shade Historical Society. Please contact President William Beegle at 740-446-2152 or beegle@hughes.net no later than Monday evening May 19th. The program following the meal will be the presentation of awards to members and organization of the community who have exhibited the American Spirit and outstanding patriotism! PLEASE PLAN ON ATTENDING!

April Meeting Rewind

The 2013-2014 Ewings Chapter officers were nominated from the floor by acclamation to serve for another year. They are as followed:

Ewings Chapter Officers 2014 – 2015

President – William Beegle

Vice President – Alan Goldsberry

2nd Vice President – Carl Denbow
